By Lynne Alessio

Last Monday, South High hosted an adult "dope education" class for all parents in the district in the cafeteria from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m.

Six students, former dope users, revealed many of their experiences with "pot," "acid,"

Storyteller To Entertain Youngsters

The World's Largest Portable Flannelgraph is coming to Calvary Baptist Tabernacle. Starting Sunday, the Rev. Frank R. Wellington will be bringing a children's program to Gardena.

Rev. Wellington is known as "The Edgar Bergen of the Religious World" and the foremost children's story teller on this continent. He presents the Wonders of the Gospel, using slides, movies, his famous talking dummies, Tiny, Tilly, Uncle Cy, and Terry the Tiger; musical instruments, including the rare triple octave chimes; musical water glasses; and the celebrated giant flannelgraph which sometimes requires climbing a ladder to place the life-size figures.

The programs are each night at 7 p.m., Sunday, continuing through Friday, Calvary Baptist Tabernacle, 18701 Denker Ave., Gardena.

"speed," and other drugs. They told the reasons why they started using them and what induced them to quit.

Two students on the panel had never used drugs before. Norbert Sweet, Spartan sociology instructor, directed the panel discussion which lasted about 45 minutes.

AFTERWARDS the adults broke up into groups of an average of 16 each and went to nearby classrooms. One student who had taken the drugs and one who hadn't was assigned to each group and answered any questions put to them by the parents.

Grade school principals were invited to attend the meeting. The panel hopes to make visits to each of South's "feeder schools" to talk to the parents of the grade schoolers.

SEMIESTER finals will be held next week. Monday and Tuesday period 0 will be tested, for an hour each day, because no time is made for this class in the regular testing schedule. They will be regular-schedule days.

Wednesday through Friday will be half days with all classes being dismissed at 12:20. Each final is two hours long and two finals will be given each of the three days. Wednesday, periods 1 and 2 will be tested; Thursday, periods 3, 4, or 5; Friday, periods 6 and 7. The second semester begins Feb. 3.

... Charter

The furor began last October, when the committee submitted its tentative draft of the revised charter. The document calls for a strong city manager government, presumably less subject to political pressures. It virtually relegates the city council to a purely policy-making position, and calls for the city manager to appoint the city clerk and city treasurer, who are now elected.

shifting from military to commercial and space programs, he predicted.

In fact, Teske said, a settlement of the Vietnam War could create major expansion of the aerospace industry to opening the way for long-delayed government programs.

FERRARO, noting the city government deals in services and people—not products, said there is "nothing new" in store for the city in 1969, but that "the intensity of it is going to pick up."

The city manager said plans already have been drawn for some 3,000 apartment units to be built in the year and added that the last major single-family development—about 300 homes—is now under construction the west end of the city.

Major emphasis for the city, Ferraro said, will be the attempt to create a sense of community identity, maintain strong local autonomy by providing for continued citizen participating in the affairs of government, and to work toward providing cultural and recreational facilities.

Student Assaulted

A 15-year-old North High student was beaten by three teenage boys Wednesday for no apparent reason.

Taken unconscious to Little Company of Mary Hospital was Mike S. Tovar, 18914 Florwood Ave.

Police said the beating incident occurred about 9:30 p.m. at the northwest corner of Crenshaw and Artesia boulevards.

The three suspects pulled Tovar from the passenger seat of the family car after his mother, Mrs. Mary Tovar, had stopped the car at the intersection. The boys beat Tovar over the head with a portable radio then kicked him about the face.

For 2¢ we'll do the dishes.

Birthday parties are loads of fun. But cleaning up afterwards is no party, right? Loads of fun means loads of dishes. Relax. For two cents we'll do the dishes. Two cents worth of electricity is all it takes to run a load through the dishwasher. Then there's the carpet. For a fraction of a cent, electricity will do the vacuuming. Incidentally, it won't even cost you two cents to bake a birthday cake in your electric oven. No matter how you use it, electricity does so much for so little. In fact, electricity in Edison areas costs the average family less today per kilowatt-hour than it did 10...20...even 30 years ago. Practically everyone today is using much more electricity—more kilowatt-hours—than ever before, and it's still one of your biggest bargains. Maybe that's why we get invited to so many parties.
